

Welcome to the Mendoza College of Business

STUDY ABROAD INFO SESSION

FALL 2024

What's Covered in this Session

- Where can I study abroad?
- How does study abroad fit in my plan of study?
- How do I find information about locations?
- How do I apply?
- When's the deadline?
- Where do I go with my questions?

Where can I study abroad?

- ❑ There is not a dedicated business program
- ❑ Choose your location based on where you want to study abroad - Do your research
- ❑ Be OPEN to the Fall Semester
- ❑ You may submit applications for only 2 locations.
- ❑ Study Abroad is a competitive process
 - ▶ not all students will be accepted

How does it fit in my plan of study?

- Look at your plan of study - 15-16 credits abroad
- ELECTIVES - great option for abroad - most flexibility
- University requirements
 - ▶ LA6, LA4, 2nd THEO, 2nd PHIL, maybe WRIT
- 2nd Major/Minor
 - ▶ May find courses for 2nd major or minor. Talk to major/Minor Advisor to see if courses count and how many are allowed
- Don't Plan on Mendoza major course abroad
 - ▶ if offered, only one allowed
 - ▶ Not many locations offer them
 - ▶ so for planning, it's best not to count on it
- Many locations have REQUIRED courses. Make sure to add them into your plan. (London/Rome/Dublin)

□

Plan of Study

Plan of Study

Study Abroad Course Information

Key Factors to Keep in Mind

- ▶ Your question responses are the important part of your application. This is how you distinguish yourself. This is your WHY.
- ▶ Fall semester grades weigh in the decision
- ▶ Serious Community Standards violations impact decision
- ▶ Minimum for Mendoza is 2.5 (cumulative). Some programs have higher GPA requirements.

Application Questions

Study Abroad Questionnaire

Application Requirements

- Application link is found on each program page on the study abroad website
- Part of the application process is that you must receive approval to study abroad from your DUS and your Dean.
- For Mendoza College of Business Students your 1st DUS is one of the following advisors based on your last name:
 - ▶ A-D Amy Radvansky
 - ▶ E-K Lisa Heming
 - ▶ L-Q Taylor Thomas
 - ▶ R-Z Gina Shropshire
- Your 2nd DUS would be the person in charge of your 2nd or supplementary major (if applicable).
- Your Advising Dean is Andrew Wendelborn, not Dean Martjin Cremers

Study Abroad Website

Summer Study Abroad Applications

- Summer study abroad applications opened September 1st
- Same deadline as the semester applications of November 1st.
- No approvals required
- Two Summer Applications allowed
- You can apply to both summer and semester programs.
- Summer program applications won't impact semester program decisions.

Logistics

- ❑ Do not email your Advisor/DUS and/or your Dean to let us know about your application or to request approvals. We are automatically notified that your application is awaiting approval.
- ❑ Your deadline to submit applications is November 1st, but our deadline to submit approvals is December 1st. Please be patient.

Application Requirements

We will add DUS and Dean's approval based on:

- Your GPA is above 2.5 and you are not on academic warning or probation.
- The study abroad semester fits in your 4-year plan of study and you can complete all graduation requirements.
- You have opened your Study Abroad applications in the system so that we can add our approvals.

DEADLINES

- November 1st – Your fully completed application must be submitted.
- December 1st - Mendoza approvals for all open applications will be completed by your Undergraduate Advisor/DUS and Dean.

KEEP CALM

AND

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Next Steps and Additional Information

- ❑ You do not have to meet with an advisor for study abroad approvals.
- ❑ Study Abroad Week begins Monday, September 23rd.
- ❑ Questions about the questionnaire, mistakes on your application, or technical difficulties should be directed to the Study Abroad Office.
- ❑ 2nd major or minor questions - contact that advisor.
- ❑ Do your homework – find out if your program requires language study before you go and at what level. These courses might need to be built into your Plan of Study in sophomore year.

Reminder of deadlines

- November 1st – Your fully completed application must be submitted in the system to Study Abroad.
- December 1st- Mendoza approvals for all open applications will be completed by your Undergraduate Advisor/DUS and your Advising Dean.

Application Requirements - Again

- Apply link found in each program on study abroad website
- Part of the application process is that you must receive approval to study abroad from your DUS and your Dean.
- For Mendoza College of Business Students your 1st DUS is one of the following advisors based on your last name:
 - ▶ A-D Amy Radvansky
 - ▶ E-K Lisa Heming
 - ▶ L-Q Taylor Thomas
 - ▶ R-Z Gina Shropshire
- Your 2nd DUS would be the person in charge of your 2nd or supplementary major.
- Your Advising Dean is Andrew Wendelborn.

For more information go to studyabroad.nd.edu/programs

